PIEMONTE – Cantina Boeri

Martinette Barbera d'Asti DOCG Superiore

Classification: Barbera d'Asti DOCG Superiore

Production area: Bracco Quaglia hills in Bionzo, a small hamlet of Costigliole d'Asti.

Grape variety: Barbera 100%

Vinification: Thinning of the grapes at the end of July. Manual harvest, where only the best bunches are selected and collected into small wooden crates. Then grapes are gently pressed. Afterwards follows fermentation, on skins, for about 7-8 days.

Aging: in barriques for 12 months

Color: intense ruby-red

Bouquet: fresh cherry and raspberry, spices

Palate: sweet and plummy fruit with an impressive vigor, length, and freshness.

Average alcohol content: 14°

Serve at: 18-20°C

Aging potential: 8 - 10 years

Food pairings: Its versatility allows this wine to accompany an entire multi-course meal: savory appetizers such as cured meats, hearty pasta dishes, rich seconds of red or white meat, and cheese platter to close with.
